Clifford R. Rowe, Jr. Named Chairman of the Construction Advancement Program

Thomas A. Landau Appointed Treasurer of CAP

Pittsburgh, PA – The Construction Advancement Program of Western Pennsylvania (CAP) announced that Clifford R. Rowe, Jr. has been named Chairman of CAP.

Mr. Rowe is Chief Executive Officer of PJ Dick Incorporated, a general contractor and construction management firm, which recently relocated on the North Shore section of Pittsburgh, occupying the 5th and 6th floors of the Equitable Building. Mr. Rowe is Immediate Past President of the Master Builders' Association of Western Pennsylvania.

Joining Mr. Rowe on the CAP executive board are Thomas A. Landau and Jack W. Ramage. Mr. Landau, President of Landau Building Company, will serve as CAP Treasurer. Mr. Ramage will serve as CAP Executive Director.

About CAP: The Construction Advancement Program is a service organization established in 1961 via the collective bargaining agreements between the MBA and the various building trades unions. The primary function of CAP is to provide services benefiting all persons, management and labor alike, who earn their living in union construction.
