August 6, 2019

Pittsburgh, PA – The Board of Directors of the Master Builders' Association (MBA) announced the appointment of Jodi Rennie to its Board of Directors.

Ms. Rennie is Vice President and General Manager of Turner Construction Company's Pittsburgh office. She brings more than 32 years of experience at Turner, a company that completes $12 billion of construction on 1,500 projects each year. The company has a well-earned reputation for undertaking large, complex projects, fostering innovation, and being an active member of the community. Turner's roots in Western Pennsylvania date back to 1908 when it worked on Forbes Field, the original home of the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club and the Pittsburgh Steelers. The company has also built many prominent buildings in Pittsburgh, including the 64-story US Steel Tower, which is the tallest building in the city.

Todd Dominick, President of the MBA, said, "Jodi will be a great addition to the MBA Board of Directors. Her extensive construction-industry experience, along with the national perspective that she can provide, will be tremendous assets to the Board and the MBA membership."

Jodi Rennie notes, "I look forward to working with the MBA and to contributing to the ongoing effort to advance our industry through education, inclusion, and collaboration."
